

Abstract of the Disclosure:

A circuit includes a built-in self-test, wherein the test coverage of a tested logic circuit is improved given the utilization of a fixed standard interface. Besides a direct interface, the complex circuit has an additional indirect interface, which connects a structural test device to a functional circuit.

GLM/kf

1999P1681P